

The LA Jews for Refugees Assembly is convened by HIAS in partnership with over 30 co-sponsors.

LEAD CO-SPONSORS:

CO-SPONSORS:

Thursday, March 22, 2018
6:00pm-9:00pm
Temple Beth Am

HIAS
Welcome the stranger.
Protect the refugee.

LA Jews for Refugees Assembly

Program

Tonight, we sound a rallying cry to the leadership of our country to continue welcoming those seeking refuge.

◦

The Current Refugee Crisis

The global refugee crisis and the Jewish perspective on refugees. Is America's legacy of welcome at risk?

◦

The Refugee Experience

Personal stories from refugees

◦

How to Help Refugees in Los Angeles

Hear from government officials and local organizations

◦

How to Help Refugees Beyond Los Angeles

Respond to the global crisis via direct action and advocacy

◦

Moving Forward

Before the program begins...

Enjoy delicious food provided by Miry's List Supper Club.

Learn and connect at information tables with:

- Camp Gilboa/Count Us In
- HIAS
- International Rescue Committee (IRC)
- Interfaith Refugee & Immigration Service (IRIS)
- IsraAID
- Jewish Family Service of Los Angeles
- Jewish World Watch
- League of Women Voters
- Refugee Forum of Los Angeles
- San Fernando Valley Refugee Children Center
- Save the Syrian Children
- Tiyya

Walk through the Refugee Art Installation.

After the program ends...

1. Show your friends that you stand with refugees. Post about this event on Facebook and Twitter with the #RefugeeAssemblyLA or #RefugeesWelcome hashtag
2. Join the emerging LA Jews for Refugees Coalition – www.jewsforrefugees.org
3. Talk about refugees at your Passover Seder with the HIAS Haggadah supplement at www.hias.org/passover2018
4. See the “What should we do next?” handout for a full list of ways to advocate, educate, volunteer, and donate or visit www.jewsforrefugees.org